STUDENT TRUSTEE REPORT

Public Session

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

St. John's College (SJC), Assumption College School (ACS), Holy Trinity Catholic High School (HT), and St. Mary' Catholic Learning Center (SMCLC) continue to have strong 2024-2025 school years as they enter the month of December, with various dances, sporting events, and holiday activities taking place.

DEVELOPMENTS:

The Student Senate planned and successfully executed the 2024 Student Council Retreat at Holy Trinity on December 10, 2024. This retreat helped to the build leadership and communication skills among Student Council members of St. John's, Assumption College, and Holy Trinity.

SCHOOL NEWS:

Assumption has had another great month of activities for November, and we are looking forward to continuing this into December. Student council had a busy month preparing for semi-formal which happened on December 6, 2024, which had great attendance with everyone dressing up for the occasion. Student council is also looking to continue the school spirit until Christmas break with the annual five days of spirit before the break. The five days of spirit will end with the exiting spirit of Christmas event where everyone gathers to share a turkey lunch, before proceeding to the gym for some exiting activities to end on a high note before the break.

In sports news the senior girl's basketball team ended up going to OFSAA (Ontario Federation of School Athletic Associations), which was a great experience for all of them. With all the fall sports wrapped up, Assumption is looking to pivot into winter sports. Boys and girls' hockey held tryouts and have started their season along with girl's volleyball, boys' basketball, and curling. The badminton team has begun practices but have yet to select a team. Assumption's social justice class started off strong with a marketplace where students helped to raise money for Pennies from Heaven. Graduation photos were taken for the students that will be graduating in 2025. Model United Nations (UN) had a successful day with students representing different countries to discuss world issues. STEM club had a University of Waterloo professor come in to talk about math problems and different techniques to solve problems. STEM's annual bridge building competition has also begun where students make bridges out of popsicle sticks and the bridge that can hold the most weight wins. Assumption also had the academic awards ceremony where we honored the students who excelled academically during the 2023-2024 school year.

St. John's had a great month of activities with our student council having their semi-formal dance which was a big success. The theme was 'New York, the city that Never Sleeps' and over 400 tickets were sold. We are looking forward to 12 days of Christmas and Gingerbread House which is very similar to a coffee house but Christmas themed. The day before Christmas will be our yearly spirit of Christmas day which includes an advent mass as well as activities throughout the school.

In sports news, fall sports have finished with junior girls winning CWOSSA (Central Western Ontario Secondary Schools Association). Winter sports are starting off strong with boys' basketball, girls' volleyball, curling, hockey, and wrestling. Swimming is coming to an end with AABHN (Athletic Association of Brant, Haldimand & Norfolk Counties) on December 10th. In news from the clubs, the student newspaper (The Gazette) released their first issue, social science continues to meet, and STEM had a meeting where students were able to experiment with dry ice. ACE club is planning a Christmas movie night, campus ministry made stockings for Riverview Terrace Retirement Residence, and concert band will be performing at the Christmas concert on Wednesday, December 11, 2024, and at some of the local elementary schools on Friday, December 13, 2024. SJC's angel campaign is continuing with students and their families encouraged to donate money to purchase food, and other essential items to SJC families in need. Academic awards were given out to the recipients and environmental awareness week happened to raise awareness about energy use. A book drive was run to collect books to donate to St. Vincent De Paul.

Holy Trinity has experienced a busy and festive season filled with various activities, events, and accomplishments across different areas of school life. The student council of Holy Trinity has fully embraced the holiday spirit organizing Christmas Spirit Month throughout December, with numerous festive events. Activities of this three weeklong spirit month include school-wide Elf on the Shelf hunts, candy gram and "Burr" basket sales, Christmas films in the cafeteria, and much more. Additionally, Student Council organized the yearly "12 Days of Christmas" giveaways", which saw council members selecting lucky homeroom classes to receive daily prizes announced on HTTV. Prizes included, but were not limited to items such as Timbits and candy canes for the class, free Burr basket tickets, and skip-the-cafeteria-line tickets. Holy Trinity's Student Council looks forward to the execution of the remainder of this month's activities and continuing to raise school spirit.

In sports news, the winter sports season has officially kicked off. Students began training with the Winter Rugby Academy, as both junior and senior girls' volleyball teams and boys' basketball teams started their seasons with promising performances. Varsity hockey teams for both boys and girls hit the ice with strong starts. The cheerleading team held tryouts for the competitive season, generating excitement among the school's cheerleading enthusiasts. In addition, several student-athletes were recognized for their outstanding achievements and contributions to their teams and have been acknowledged through posting on Holy Trinity's athletic social media.

In other news, the Leadership class worked tirelessly to support the community through various charitable activities. The annual "12 Days of Giving Tree" campaign concluded successfully, with generous donations pouring in to support children in need. Additionally, the "Giving Tree" project encouraged homerooms to purchase gifts for underprivileged children, showcasing the school community's generosity. Leadership also launched a brand-new initiative, "Coats 4 Kids," where staff and students donated gently used winter clothing to support local elementary schools. Lastly, the Leadership class is planning a Christmas Turkey Dinner event on the last day of school before the holiday break. Leadership will also be collaborating with Student Council to plan various activities throughout the school for students to take part in before Christmas vacation. Furthermore, French Club held its monthly meeting and designed custom French Club spirit wear, fostering cultural appreciation. The school community also came together for a heartfelt Christmas Advent Mass, celebrating the true meaning of the holiday season. With so many memorable events and impactful initiatives, Titans are ready to close the year on a high note and look forward to an even more successful year in 2025.

St. Mary's Catholic Learning Centre has also begun to embrace the holiday season, holding various Christmas activities in the month of December. St. Mary's Student Council has planned a variety of activities, including a school-wide Elf on the Shelf, a classroom door decorating competition, colouring contests, distribution of hot chocolate, making Christmas ornaments, a charitable "Angel Campaign" in support of students, and more. On the last day of school before the holiday break, St. Mary's Student Council has also planned even more activities including karaoke and the playing of a Christmas movie. On this day, students will not only be able wear festive holiday clothing but will also be enjoying waffles together as a community before going home for the Christmas break. In other news, St. Mary's Eco-Team have applied for a grant to help fund their cause. The students of St. Mary's look forward to the remainder of December's Christmas activities and are eager to continue working hard into the new year.

RECOMMENDATION:

THAT the Brant Haldimand Norfolk Catholic District School Board receives the Student Trustee Report.
